Greetings NAUW Sisters,

On behalf of the members of the St. Louis Branch and the North Central Section, it is with pleasure and great pride that we welcome each of you to St. Louis, Missouri, the home of the World Famous St. Louis Cardinals, Gateway Arch & Jefferson National Expansion Memorial and our “not so average” City Museum. Notable persons born in St. Louis include Maya Angelou, Josephine Baker, Chuck Berry and Redd Foxx.

We are excited and delighted to serve as hosts to the 70th National Convention and we hope that you will find it enjoyable, relaxing, informative and stimulating. We want this convention to pack the power of three: by resonating, by standing apart, and by offering something authentic! Sisters, your presence will: help ignite the give and take of information, help evoke a feeling of shared sisterhood within NAUW, help lift the name of NAUW in the minds of our community, and renew again the sense of camaraderie in our National Organization.

While you are here, we hope you will explore our many cultural, educational and fun attractions. St. Louis offers; unique attractions, historic sites, charming neighborhoods and entertainment options. Visit our renowned St. Louis Zoo, take a 630 feet ride to the top of the Gateway Arch, or visit our famous Lumiere Casino. Come early and take an escorted pre-tour or plan a tour of your own.

Special thanks to the 2016 St. Louis Convention Planning Committee and the North Central Section Director and Branches for all their contributions, planning and dedication to making this a successful convention. May God’s richest blessings be with each NAUW Sister as you enjoy your stay in St. Louis, MO – “The Gateway to the West!”

With Much Sisterly Love,

Gennette T. Wicker, Convention Chairperson
Linda Ester, North Central Section Director
Cynthia L. Price, Sylvia Selvey, Dorothy Neals Co-Chairs
Myrtle Love, St. Louis Branch President

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Greetings My Beautiful NAUW Sisters,

I extend a hardy Welcome to you to join the St. Louis Branch (Host), at the 70th National Convention! You are in for a treat. Much preparation and planning has gone into making this the best convention you have ever attended. As you arrive, you will be greeted by sunny skies and a multitude of smiling St. Louis Branch faces. While in the North Central Section, you will experience dynamic plenary sessions as well as educational and thought provoking workshops led by professionals from various walks of life. We know it can't be "all work and no play". Every NAUW woman in attendance will have the opportunity to visit the many tourist attractions in the city of St. Louis. This great city offers exquisite night life, as well as casual and formal dining just walking distance to the Hyatt Regency St. Louis at The Arch hotel. Whatever your pleasure, you are sure to find it in St. Louis. St. Louis Branch President Myrtle Love, Convention Chairs Gennette Wicker, Sylvia Selvey and Cynthia Price, Sectional Director Linda Ester and the entire North Central Section await you. We know you will enjoy your stay and walk away proud to be among "Progressive Women Remaining Relevant in a Global Society". See you there!

Sincerely,

Evelyn L. Wright

Workshops' Descriptions

1. Steps to Successfully Manage Your Branch Finances -This workshop will review the duties of the Treasurer and Financial Secretary •Timeline for Submission of Dues and Required Documentation (i.e. download of forms from National Website) •Required forms to submit to National for Reimbursement •Use of Electronic Tools to Generate Monthly/Yearly Financial Reports (i.e., Microsoft Excel) •Answer Questions Related to Tax Exempt Documentation Needed to be Submitted to Vendors.....Bring laptops if available.
2. The Latest Trends and Technologies – This workshop will discuss the use of various forms of electronic communication devices through which users create online communities to share information, ideas, personal messages, and other content (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, LinkedIn, etc.). Bring you smart phones, netbooks, etc. to the workshop.
3. The Technology of Identity Theft – Identify theft and financial fraud are serious problems affecting millions of people each year. No matter how cautious you are personally, corporate data breaches put all of us at risk. There will be a discussion of the problem, steps you can take to minimize the risks, and what to do should you become a victim.
4. Stress Relief –Let's spend a little time learning how to unwind and what easy methods can be used to help us relax. This workshop will emphasize relaxation methods.
5. Building a Healthy Me – A nutritious diet, physical activity, social engagement and mentally stimulating pursuits have all been associated with helping people stay active as they age. Several medical conditions and their connections to other illnesses, sometimes very serious, will be discussed during this workshop.
6. Let's Address the Issues-Know your voting rights- Learn about the Voting Rights act pending in congress and how it impacts our communities
7. Focus on Retirement Starting at 30/40... - These workshops are specifically for people age 40 or older and are designed to help you make decisions about your retirement planning and personal finances. The following topic areas will be covered in the workshops: Health Benefits during Retirement and Introduction to Retirement Planning •Retirement Income Sources • Investments Discussion • Estate Planning, Distribution of Assets and Federal Gift & Estate Tax
8. Dance Your Way to Fitness – Do you think you can dance? If you are not sure, why not give it a try? Dancing is an exciting and social way to work out your body. From ballroom to salsa, dancing works your heart and helps build strong bones and muscles. And because dancing is so much fun, you may forget you are exercising. Come and join us for a workshop that has great benefits that include: better heart health, stronger muscles, better balance and coordination, stronger bones, lower risk of dementia, improved memory, reduced stress, more energy, and improved mood.
9. Collaboration Work and Your Compass Point- This workshop will focus on the importance of learning about your personal compass point and collaboration with others
